Australia Awards In-PNG Scholarships Application Form for Intake 2023

Maritime Scholarships for Women

Maritime Scholarships for Women for 2023

Australia Awards In-PNG Scholarships provide training in priority areas identified by the Governments of Papua New Guinea and Australia, delivered through selected partner institutions in Papua New Guinea. Maritime Scholarships for Women are delivered in partnership with the private sector and contribute to workforce development and gender equality in PNG's transport industry.

Important: Please read carefully before completing your application

You must complete your application in English.

Complete this application to apply for a cadetship at the PNG Maritime College for:

- Officer of the Watch Deck
- Officer of the Engine Room

Eligibility requirements

You must meet the following requirements to be considered for a scholarship:

- meet PNG Maritime College entry conditions
- be a female citizen of Papua New Guinea and be residing in PNG at the time of application (please note that the scholarship is not open to men)
- have completed Grade 12 or matriculation upgrade (FODE/DODL) with a minimum grade B in Advanced Math and Literature (English), and grade C in Physics and Chemistry.

Successful application

If you are offered a scholarship, you will need to:

- sign a contract and be bound by the scholarship conditions
- be accepted full-time into the cadetship identified in your scholarship offer for the duration of the award
- If necessary, live on-campus unaccompanied (no family)
- meet all other conditions of the scholarship award.

Fraudulent Documents and false statements

The Australian Government takes a zero-tolerance approach to fraud. All application documents will be verified and if found fraudulent, applicants will be excluded from consideration for this scholarship and any future Australia Awards Scholarships. If application fraud is detected after a Scholarship is awarded the Scholarship will be terminated.

THIS APPLICATION FORM IS NOT FOR SALE

Pregnancy

- Due to the extended time at sea near coastal and international cargo vessels, women who are pregnant or nursing infants less than 12 months old are ineligible to apply. This is in the best interests of both the woman and her unborn baby or young infant
- The selection process will include medical assessments including blood tests and X-rays of your lungs
- X-rays can be harmful to unborn babies. The blood test will verify if you are pregnant
- If you become pregnant during the application and selection process, please withdraw your application

PART 4. SELECTION & ASSESSMENT QUESTIONS

A response is required for all questions

These questions will be used to assess your application Please provide your best response

You MUST answer within the specified word count

Q1: Why are you interested in a career in maritime and where do you see your career three years after you qualify as an Officer of Watch (Class III or Class IV)?

This question aims to assess your interest in the maritime industry and commitment to ongoing learning and career progression.

(300 words)

Q2: Consider the personal and workplace challenges you might face while undertaking the sea time phase of the Cadetship. Describe ONE personal and ONE workplace challenge you are likely to face. What strategies would you use to address each of these challenges?

This question aims to assess your ability to reflect on your skills and experiences, analyse the situation problems and identify solutions and strategies to successfully complete your cadetship.

(300 words)

Q3: The maritime industry requires you to work in a team. Describe an experience of working in a team in your community or school and how you build relationships with others to achieve the necessary outcomes? What are your strengths as a team player? Where could you improve?

This question aims to learn about how you define teamwork and how the way teamwork can be successful. It also aims to get insights into your capabilities, your skills and how you put your skills to work.

(300 words)

Q4: Describe how you achieved a long-term goal or a particular skill (for example, an education qualification, achievement in sport, learning a skill such as playing a musical instrument, a handicraft, etc.). What was your goal? What challenges did you face in your journey towards your goal? How did you overcome these challenges?

This question aims to assess your determination, your ability to prioritise and to make use of your available resources. The goal may be a personal goal or a goal within your community.
