

Australia Awards In-PNG Scholarships Application Form for Intake 2025

Bachelor of Midwifery

Midwifery Scholarships for 2025

Australia Awards In-PNG Scholarships provide training in priority areas identified by the Governments of Papua New Guinea and Australia, delivered through selected partner institutions in Papua New Guinea.

Midwifery scholars and graduates contribute to quality maternal and neonatal health outcomes across Papua New Guinea.

Important: Please read carefully before completing your application

This application form is for study in Papua New Guinea only (not Australia). You must complete this application form in English.

The scholarship is available for study at:

- St Mary's School of Nursing (women only)
 - Lutheran School of Nursing
 - University of Goroka
 - Pacific Adventist University
 - University of Papua New Guinea

Eligibility Requirements

You must meet the following requirements to be considered for a scholarship:

- meet the conditions of entry for your preferred institution(s)
- be a citizen of PNG and residing in PNG at the time of application
- not have been convicted of a criminal offence
- not have been terminated from a previous Australia Awards scholarship
- hold a PNG nursing qualification (Diploma or above)
- have two years' minimum recent employment as a practicing nurse
- be fully registered with the PNG Nursing Council
- if employed in an NGO facility, have endorsement from your employer for leave with or without pay
- if you are a permanent employee of a Government of PNG health service, you must have employer approval via the training committee process in accordance with PNG National Public Service General Order Training.

Required supporting documents

- One recent passport size ID photo with your name and signature on the back of the photo (scanned/electronic copy is acceptable)
- Certified copy of your Nursing qualification
- Certified copy of your Nursing academic transcript
- Copy of your passport bio page or NID card or birth certificate or photo ID such as driver's license, school ID card, or Staff ID card
- Curriculum Vitae (CV) using template provided
- Letter of endorsement from your employer (if you are permanently employed). See footnote.

Successful applications

If you are offered a scholarship, you will need to:

- sign a contract and be bound by the scholarship conditions
- be accepted full-time into study at the institution identified in your scholarship offer for the duration of the award
- if necessary, live on-campus unaccompanied (no family)
- meet all other conditions of the scholarship Award.

Fraudulent documents and false statements

The Australian Government takes a zero-tolerance approach to fraud. All application documents will be verified and if found fraudulent applicants will be excluded from consideration for this scholarship and any future Australia Awards. If application fraud is detected after a scholarship is awarded, the scholarship will be immediately terminated.

THIS APPLICATION FORM IS NOT FOR SALE

Applications close at 5pm on Friday 5 July 2024

Footnote - Endorsement should come from an appropriate senior officer within the authority to grant you leave from your post to undertake the scholarship. If you are a permanent employee of a Government of PNG facility, your endorsement must come via your organisation's training committee process and be signed off by a senior officer in charge of human resources (endorsement will be verified during eligibility checks). Nurses employed on a temporary or casual basis do not require endorsement, however it is strongly recommended.

Part 7: Assessment Questions

Answer ALL questions and ALL aspects of each question. These questions will be used to assess your application. Please provide your best answers.

You MUST answer within the specified word count

Q1: After graduation, how will your work as a midwife contribute to the improvement of maternal and child health in your community and country?

In your response, please outline how you will continue to develop your professional skills and knowledge of midwifery to achieve this.

Please ensure your response addresses all aspects of the question. (300 words)

This question aims to assess your understanding, interest and commitment to skills development and ongoing professional development throughout your midwifery career and how this will help to improve the quality of maternal health care in PNG.

Q2: Use the STAR method to answer this question. Read the Situation provided and use the guiding questions to describe the Task, the Action, and the Result. (300 words)

Situation: You are on duty in a ward in a General Hospital. The ward is crowded, busy and noisy. Many of the patients and family members are asking questions and demanding your attention. There are no spare beds. Two emergency cases arrive requiring your immediate assistance.

Task: Describe your role and responsibility in this situation.

Action: Explain the following in your response - How did you address this situation? What did you do? How did you remain focused?

Result: Explain how your actions contributed to the outcomes in the ward. What did you learn from this experience? What could you do differently next time?

This question aims to assess your problem-solving and critical thinking skills and to demonstrate how you apply your skills in a professional setting.

Q3: Please outline the academic and personal challenges you expect to face while studying as a scholarship awardee and identify strategies you could use to help you overcome these challenges.

Please ensure you answer both parts of this question.

(300 words)

This question aims to assess your ability to reflect on your skills and experiences required to analyse a challenging situation and identify solutions and strategies to overcome those challenges which will allow you to successfully complete your study.

Q4: Describe one policy, process, procedure, activity, or perception that you may be able to improve or change using your new midwifery qualification. In your response, explain what impact this improvement or change will have for your patients, workplace, or community.

Please ensure your response addresses all aspects of the question.

(300 words)

This question asks you to reflect on a problem in your field and to identify any action or strategies that will contribute to change. It also asks you to think critically about the way change can take place.
